

THE CAIRNGORM CLUB

Membership Application Form

The Cairngorm Club and Mountaineering Scotland recognise that climbing and mountaineering are activities with risks of personal injury or death. Participants in these activities should be aware of and accept these risks, and be responsible for their own actions and involvement. Members and others participate in Club activities at their own risk; the Club accepts no liability.

Please read the "Club Membership" page at www.cairngormclub.org.uk
Club subscriptions include Mountaineering Scotland membership and civil liability insurance.
Current rates are available on the Club website.

ORDINARY MEMBERSHIP (ONLY)Name:

The Committee grants Ordinary Membership to those whom it considers to be able, in general terms, to look after themselves and to lead one or two others in all conditions normally encountered on the Scottish hills, though without expecting any proficiency in skills requiring the use of ropes. This level of ability will generally be inferred from experience amounting to at least thirty Munros, including at least four in the Cairngorms, and at least ten in winter conditions; but non-Scottish experience will also be recognised. Please summarise your experience below listing winter experience first. Add additional sheets if needed.

Date (year, season)	Mountain(s)	Ground (or Cliff) Conditions	Overhead Conditions

Please ask two Ordinary members to propose your application They should either sign below or email the Membership Secretary.
